

I have participated in the state of Wisconsin's no-call program since it's inception; I am totally pleased with it and support it's continuation in the form in which it presently exists. I am totally opposed to any proposed changes. I cannot express how much I have come to enjoy uninterrupted evening meals with my family!